I'm sure you will agree that the children did exceptionally well and their stamina, speed and compassion was impressive. We have a great school community and it was wonderful to be reunited again at such a lovely event.

Congratulations to all of the children, well done to the blue team for scoring the most points, thank you to the staff team, thank you to our excellent commentator Matt and a massive thank to our amazing PTA and WI for providing the refreshments and raffle.

Break the Rules Day

Break the Rules Day is Next Friday 15th July we'll be having our first break the rules day. We would like the children to select which rules they'd like to break in exchange for a small fee!

The children have created the list and the prices. Just to be clear the children will still be expected to let their lights shine by following the rainbow rules, being respectful and enjoying their learning.

The children have said that they will take full responsibility for their toys and will only bring in a small amount of sweets. The school council will be collecting your contribution for breaking the rules. We are collecting for Mawnan PTA.
